LIBITAL REPUBLICAN AND DEMO-CRATIC MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Yesterday afternoon handbills were issued from our office announcing a meeting under the auspices of the Liberal Republicans and Democrats of Pioche, at the new stand erected on Main street for the use of those of either party who might desire to address the people on the political issues which now engross public attention. Hon. Thomas Fitch, of Salt Lake City, and Col. C. W. Lightner, candidate for Presidential Elector, were announced as speakers. Notwithstanding the short notice given, from 1,000 to 1,200 assembled on the ground. Bonfires were lighted up in the street, and a band of music enlivened the occasion. Col. C. W. Lightner was called to the chair, and made a brief address, thanking the people for the honor accorded him and expressing his earnestness in behalf of the party and its success in November.

On motion, the following gentlemen were proposed as officers of the meeting and unanimously elected:

Chairman, Col. C. W. Lightner; Vice Presidents, C. H. Beckwith, H. I. Thornton, Jno. C. Maynard, Judge Miller of Idaho, W. H. Henderson, B. F. Sides, Jas. Pierson, Henry Rives, Ed. Donahue, T. R. Butler, M. F. Tarpey, M. Schustrich, Jno. Roeder, Jno. Kane, Jas. Clancey, E. L. Bradshaw, Jesse Beene, Phil. L. Shoaff, Dr. D. L. Deal, Capt. Wm. Lubbock, Thos. Wallace; Secretaries, Geo. T. Gorman, Chas. E. Harris,

B. F. Hastings, Jr. Hon. Thos. Fitch was then introduced. It is hardly necessary to introduce this gentleman to a Nevada audiance. His reputation extends throughout the Pacific const as a first-class orator. We connot undertake to follow the elequent speaker through the course of his address. We will say, however, that he proved himself fully equal to the occa-sion. Whatever may be thought of the justice of his criticism of the Grant Administration, his perfect familiarity with the history of the country could not fail to attract the attention of the most casual observer, and his pleasbut believed he had failed as the ant, easy delivery and stentorian voice chained the attention of all present to his remarks. It is noticeable that he indulged in no bitterness towards Gen. Grant; he applauded his military genius, Magistrate of the country. He depre-ciated the re-election of Grant, owing to his association with corrupt men who were supported in their schemes of plunder by the Administration. He referred to the crippled condition of the South, the legitimate result of the carpetbaggers who had been sent among them by Grant's subalterns to feast and fatten up on their misfortunes. While the speaker had ever been arrayed against the defiant rebels, he had only fellowship and good will for the people of the South now that the war had ended. He paid a high compliment to Mr. Greeley as the first man in the country to tham pion universal amnesty as well as universal suffrage.

It is no less creditable to our people than it must have been gratifying to the speaker to note the fact that the best order and decorum prevailed. Those who originated the meeting have reason to feel proud of the success of their first effort Those of opposite political sentiments have no unfairness to complain of, and can only counteract the effects of this meeting by sound argument and sober appeals to the judgment of the people. Want of space is our apology for so brief and disjointed a sketch of the meeting of last night.

PUBLIC SPEAKING .- The people of this city-members of both political parties uniting in the movement-having now a good stand for the use of public speakers, we may look for stirring addresses from gentlemen of each party. The spirit which prompted the erection of a common platform is highly commenda-ble. We like to see men earnest in their political sentiments, but at the same time courteous to those who differ with them. No building in the city has sufficient capacity to seat all who will probably meet at these political gatherings, and the stand erected is therefore a great convenience.

JUDGE TILFORD left for Salt Lake City in yesterday morning's stage. The Judge intended to have addressed the citizens of Pioche upon political matters before leaving, but important business called him away suddenly and he was com-pelled to depart without gratifying his many personal and political friends in this place and vicinity with a speech.

THE ARCADE. -Tommy Mitchell opened his new saloon, the Arcade, on Meadow Valley street, on Monday evening, with a grand ball, which was well attended and passed off pleasantly. Tommy has on hand a good assortment of wines, liquors and cigars, which the thirsty will do well to call and try.

BILLS AND FEVER.-Dr. D. H. Whelpley guarantees to cure chills and fever in 24 hours. Hearing of many cases in Bullionville, he says apply to him at Mrs. Christy's lodging house, Meadow Valley street, and he guarantees a cure in 24 hours, or no pay.

CANDIDATES .- We inadvertently omitted in our former issue to announce the candidacy of M. F. Tarpey for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Liberal Republican and Democratic County Convention. The following named gentlemen are announced in our columns for different positions, all subject to the convention to be held on the 18th of Octo-ber: For Assembly—Thomas Wallace and D. H. Whelpley. For Sheriff—M. F. Tarpey. For County Clerk—Geo. T. Gorman, J. Elnathan Smith, Jesse Beene, E. Schoppmann and B. F. Hastings, Jr. For Assessor-Harry A. Fish, J. A. Curtis and Geo. B. Churchill.

PIOCHE AND BULLIONVILLE RAILROAD. We learn by telegraph from Salt Lake that the rails and other materials for this road will be shipped immediately for Pioche. This road will prove of great advantage to this camp at once, and in the not remote future it will unite with the Utah Southern, and so place our city in railroad communication with all parts of the country east and west.

A CANDIDATE FOR THE ASSEMBLY .-Thomas Wallace, of Bullionville, at the request of many friends, announces himself in to-day's paper as a candidate for the Assembly. Tom is well known in Pioche and Bullionville, and is very popular in both places. If successful in receiving the nomination, he will make a run for the position that will astonish some of the natives.

Eugene Ferguson, who was badly injured at the No. 3 shaft of the Meadow Valley Co. last week and conveyed to the County Hospital, where he has been under the care of Dr. Foltz, has been improving very fast, and the doctor hopes to have him around shortly.

PUBLIC SCHOOL .- The public school of Pioche now has 102 pupils, all of whom are progressing rapidly under the teachings of Mr. O'Dougherty and Mrs. Wilmarth. Both of these teachers devote their best energies to the advancement of their pupils and have given universal JUDGE GARBER left yesterday morning for Carson City, via Hamilton, to resume his judicial labors. He expressed himself well pleased with Pioche and our mines and the many familiar faces he met during his sojeurn among us.
